FLOOR DEBATE

January 17, 2002 LB 824

the vessel, and they care even less after she has fulfilled that function. And when that which was carried in her womb, Senator Redfield, and which people say she cared about comes into this world and that mother doesn't have enough money to provide shelter, she cannot pay the gas bill, the water bill and the light bill, she comes to the baby murderer, Ernie Chambers, because they will tell me in Lincoln, I went to the archbishop and the Catholic Church has no help for a woman in my situation and I'm a Catholic. That's what I look at. All this posturing on the floor is just that to me. That's why you cannot reach me in my emotions. You cannot make me emotional enough to support something like this.

SENATOR CUDABACK: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: And when I raise my voice like this it's for emphasis, because people pay attention then. But I know very well every word that I'm saying and I know what my determination is and you will give Senator Landis and others a chance to vote cloture, and you get a chance to see how I deal on these bills and you can see the time we're going to take on this one and others. So, by getting this bill on across the floor you're not getting rid of me, brothers and sisters, and if you think I'm tired, wait till we get back this afternoon, no matter what we're dealing with, and I will show you what it is that I'm made of. Mr. President, I'm going to ask for a call of the house and a roll call vote.

SENATOR CUDABACK: There's been a request for a call of the house. All in favor of the house going under call vote aye, opposed nay. Record, please, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 22 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, to place the house under call.

SENATOR CUDABACK: The house is under call. All unauthorized personnel please leave the floor. Unexcused senators report to the Chamber. The house is under call. The house is under call. All unexcused senators please report to the Chamber. Senator Bromm, Senator Stuhr, Senator Price, Bruning and Preister, please check in. We're looking for Senators Bromm, Bruning, and
